PUBLICATIONS AND RESEARCH

Books

- Andrew M. Davis, Philosophical Foundations of Process Theology: An Introduction to Alfred North Whitehead (forthcoming, 2023). A detailed yet playful introduction to the process philosophy of Alfred North Whitehead for graduate and undergraduate students of philosophy, theology and religion.
- Andrew M. Davis, Mind, Value, and Cosmos: On the Relational Nature of Ultimacy (Lanham: Lexington, 2020). An investigation into the nature of ultimacy and explanation, particularly as it relates to the status of, and relationship among, Mind, Value, and the Cosmos. Draws its stimulus from longstanding “axiomatic” convictions as to the ultimate status of Mind and Value in the western tradition of philosophical theology, and chiefly from the influential modern proposals of A.N. Whitehead, Keith Ward, and John Leslie, arguing for the ultimacy of relationality—what Whitehead calls “mutual immanence.” Endorsed by David Ray Griffin, John B. Cobb Jr., Nicholas Rescher, Robert Cummings Neville, Peter Forrest, John Leslie, Keith Ward, Daniel Dombrowski and PBS Closer to Truth host, Robert Lawrence Kuhn. Book recently nominated for the International Society for Science and Religion’s (ISSR) 2022 Book Prize
